

Censorship -- Is It Ever Justified?

Assigned: September 24/25

Book Read By: Oct 15

Essential Questions: Why are books censored? Can censoring books ever be justified? If we do censor, what are the consequences?

Task: You will independently read a book that has been censored in the past. You may choose a book that is considered young adult or above. You will then examine reasons and places your book has been censored, and justify its censorship or argue against it. You must complete annotations or notes from your book. There will be a form on Google Classroom you may use if you choose.

Requirements:

Page Length -- Honors 7-10

CP 5-8

Sources -- Honors Minimum 6 (including the book)

CP Minimum 4 (including the book)

MLA Format

Summative Check Points:

Annotations of Book (10 points): Due 10/15

Introduction and Thesis (20 points): Due 10/17

Annotated Bibliography (50 points)

First 2-3 Pages (10 points)

Complete Draft (for peer editing) (10 points)

Final (100 points)